OF

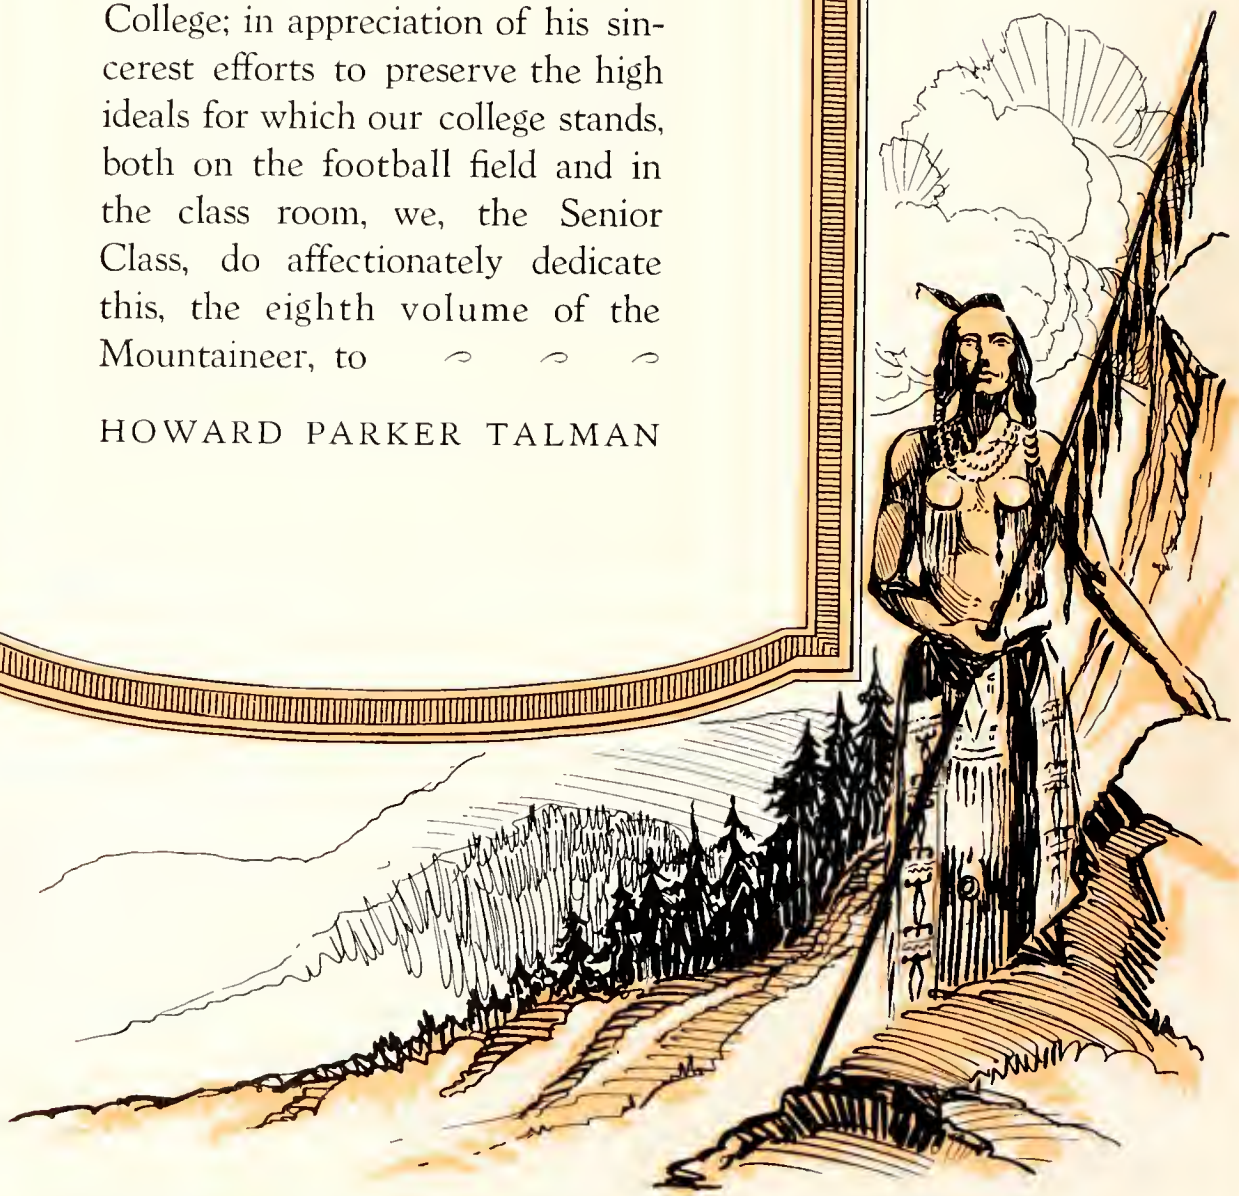
WEAVER COLLEGE

VOLUME VIII

Dedication

IN recognition of his loyalty and faithful service to Weaver College; in appreciation of his sincerest efforts to preserve the high ideals for which our college stands, both on the football field and in the class room, we, the Senior Class, do affectionately dedicate this, the eighth volume of the Mountaineer, to

HOWARD PARKER TALMAN



HOWARD PARKER TALMAN

Foreword

WHEN time shall have carried you into the future, and when you have reached the height of your endeavors, and sit enthroned among your laurels may this volume of the Mountaineer, as you turn again and again through its pages, reflect to you for a moment our college days spent at Weaver.

As you turn again and again through the pages of this book, we hope that they will remind you of the many enjoyable experiences we have had together at old Weaver. This Annual is not perfect, but it represents real work—pleasant work, but work just the same. Probably there are a few unavoidable mistakes; perhaps you are not placed correctly in every instance. If this be the case, we offer our apologies. If you should find some error in the arrangement of this Annual, won't you overlook it? We believe you will.

We wish to thank all those who have contributed toward the success of this Mountaineer, especially Miss Annie Gray, our Literary Editor, whose conscientious assistance has been invaluable to us. We appreciate the cooperation we have received from Mr. H. P. Watson, of the Knoxville Lithographing Co. A large part of the art work in this book is the contribution of Mr. J. H. Burrus, of Rutherford College. To him we extend our hearty appreciation. We urge you to show our advertisers that you appreciate their help, for without their assistance, the publication of this Annual would not have been possible.

Our College Song

THE BLACK AND GOLD

The Weaver banner flames across
The sunset's golden glow,
As darkness flings her somber shade
About the world below,
So join our hearts in glad acclaim
To Weaver true and bold;
So join our lives as one to thee,
As join the Black and Gold.

Oh! Weaver true, in years to come
We'll ne'er forget thy name;
And through the Carolina hills shall ring
Thy everlasting fame.
Then once again we'll think of thee
And give to thee our praise,
When we recall our golden youth
And happy early days.

CHORUS

Then Weaver fair, we'll sing to thee
And raise our voices high,
In praise of all we hold so dear,
Our college near the sky.

SENIORS

A Song

Hark! Within my sparkling depths
Lie stories long untold,
Of youthful maids with burnished skins
And warriors brave and bold.

All these have long since passed away,
Their tales I only know,
The tales of love, the hunt and war,
They told me long ago.

Others have come since they have gone,
A tribe that's dear to me,
The dearest friends I've ever had,
They cling to my memory.

Wigwams have changed to college halls,
Council fires are no more,
But life remains and is the same
As in those days of yore.

When the long, long day is over,
And shades of evening fall,
They gather in the twilight,
In answer to my call.

And they tell me all their troubles,
Joys, sorrows, toil, and care,
Thus they tell me of their college
And all that is found there.

Within these walls the chiefs assembled,
Teach daily without fail,
The crafts and arts that braves may learn
Knowledge of the unbroken trail.

And thus each year leads on to the next
As water flows on to the sea.
May God guide their barks to the sea of success,
These friends so dear to me.

EARL H. MORGAN

CANTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"None but himself can be his parallel."

Delphian Literary Society, Critic '28-'29, Censor '29; Day Debate Committee '29; College Council, Vice-President; Debate Council '29; Mountaineer, Editor-in-Chief; Student Council '30; Letter Club; Varsity Basketball '29-'30; Varsity Baseball '29-'30; Tennis Club; Haywood County Club; Honorary Member of Brevard and B. I. Club and Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Commencement Marshall '29.

To you, Earl, we owe a heartfelt gratitude, for you have been faithful in determining the success of the 1930 Mountaineer. An athlete playing for his Alma Mater, Earl merits the love and respect of his team-mates, the appreciation of all who love the Old Gold and Black. As a student he has made a wonderful record. He is cherished by his class-mates and honored by his teachers. We find that he upholds the highest ideals, that he is a good sport and a fine fellow. He is always courteous, has a calm and dignified manner, and is a sincere friend. As he leaves, the best wishes of all go with him, that he may continue to have the rich success he deserves.

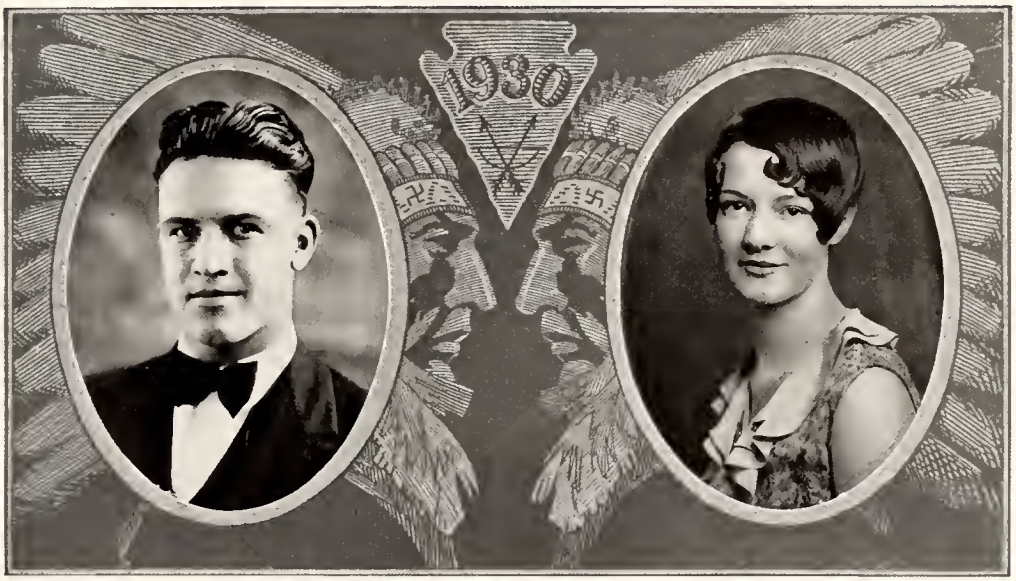
EVELYN HEMSLEY BRADSHAW

RELIEF, NORTH CAROLINA

"A jolly word, a pleasant smile; she has them ready all the while."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, President '29; Sponsor Glee Club; Buncombe County Club; Weaver "Derby" Club; U. S. A. Club; Basketball Team '28-'29; Mountaineer Staff, Snap Shot Editor; Dramatic Club.

We could go on forever saying nice things about Evelyn and never tell them all. She has a pleasing personality and a charming manner that make everyone love her. By merely knowing her our lives are made happier. Not only is she a good student, but she takes an active part in outside activities and is an all-round good girl. May her pathway be strewn with life's fairest flowers.



ERWIN S. STARNES

CANDLER, NORTH CAROLINA

"For they can conquer who believe they can."

Delphian Literary Society, President '29, Censor '28-'29; Varsity Football '28-'29; Varsity Baseball '29; Basketball Squad '29-'30; Vice-President of Epworth League '29-'30; Winner of Junior Debate '29; Mountaineer Staff, Business Manager; Glee Club; Assistant in Commercial Department '29-'30; Tennis Club; Buncombe County Club; Dramatic Club.

We never find a task too great for Starnes. He first believes he can do a thing, and then proceeds to show the others that he can. Starnes was voted the most athletic boy in our class; he was a football hero in our hardest games this year. His loyalty to his Alma Mater will never be forgotten. His debating ability is never questioned. His business ability and perseverance in the management of the Annual deserves the highest commendation. With his energy and determination we can predict a bright future for him.

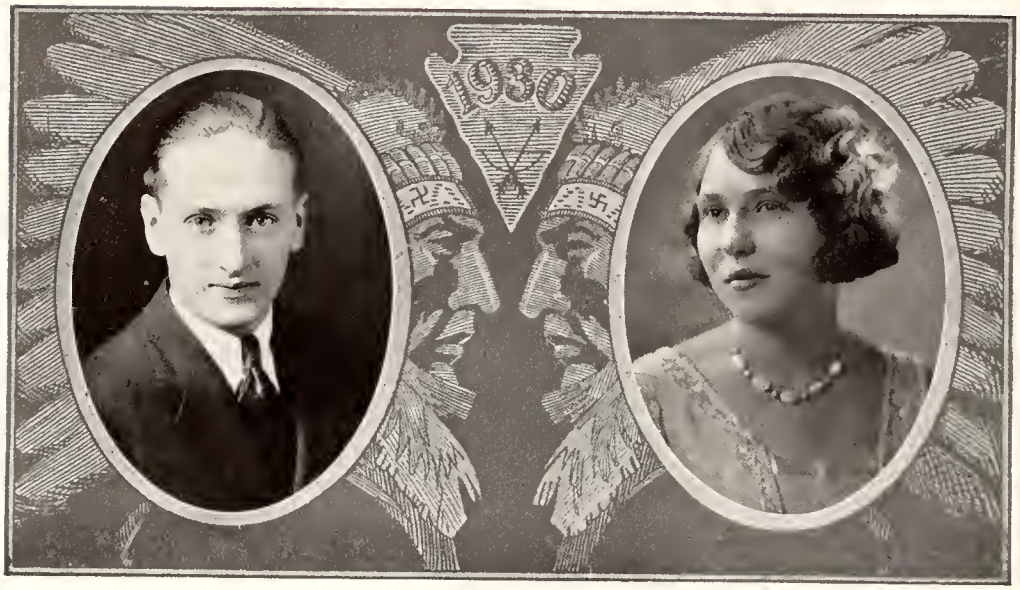
JOSEPHINE YOUNG

FOREST CITY, NORTH CAROLINA

"A pretty girl, a witty girl, a girl so full of fun;
A brainy girl, a care free girl, a thousand girls in one."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Winner of Junior Debate '29; Recitation Contest '29; Tennis Club; Rutherford-Henderson-Polk County Club, Vice-President; Honorary Member of Buncombe County Club; Vice-President of Junior Class '29; Sponsor of Junior Class '29; Sponsor of Delphian Literary Society '30; Elected Most Popular Girl; Campus Flirt; Debate Council; Intercollegiate Debate '30; Mountaineer Staff, Society Editor; Home Economics Club; Assistant Sunday School Superintendent.

The most popular girl of our Senior Class! Jo was elected to this honor because she deserves it. She has friendliness, jollity, generosity, talent, love, beauty, and our admiration. She has made a commendable record at Weaver, being a good student and a gifted speaker. That smile of greeting she has at all times radiates good feeling and makes us all happier. Jo is a pal to be appreciated and admired. We anticipate for her a glorious future. May the obstacles she overcomes be as many as the hearts she slays! Best wishes!



CARLYLE RUTLEDGE

STANLEY, NORTH CAROLINA

"A lawyer's dealings should be just and fair; honesty shines with great advantage there."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Vice-President '28, President '28, Chairman of Ways and Means Committee, Secretary '29; Debate Council, Vice-President '28; Intercollegiate Debating Team '28; College Council, President '29; Y. M. C. A., Secretary '29, Chairman of Program Committee; Epworth League, Superintendent of Second Department '29; Clio-Euterpean Play '29, Business Manager; Assistant Football Manager '28; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Tennis Club; Assistant to Bursar.

Carlyle is one of the most studious members of the student body; he thoroughly masters everything as he comes to it. Law is his chosen profession. On the platform, his eloquence is such that old Demosthenes himself would feel jealous, and old Zeus from Mt. Olympus would know his thunder out-rivaled by the matchless oratory of this man. His winning personality has made him popular with both the faculty and the student body. Carlyle was voted the most likely to succeed in the Senior Class. Luck and best wishes from every member to our young lawyer!

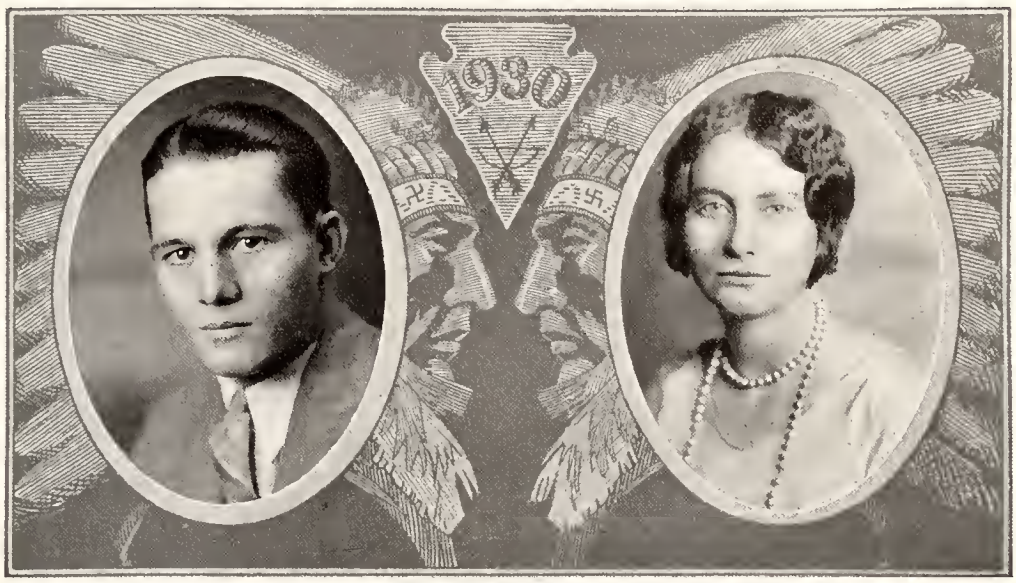
ELEANOR TROWBRIDGE

WEAVERVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Her gesture, motion, and her smiles, her wit, her voice, my heart beguiles."

Euterpean Literary Society, Secretary '29; Girls' Glee Club; College Choir; Clio-Euterpean Play '28-'29; Dramatic Club; Life Service Band, President '30; Buncombe County Club; B. I. Transylvania Club; U. S. A. Club; Epworth League Cabinet; Junior Debate '29; Winner Recitation Contest '29; Commencement Marshall, Intercollegiate Debate '30; Debate Council, President; Class Baby.

Eleanor is one of the persons who have helped to make our two years at Weaver most enjoyable. It was she who greeted and welcomed us when we came as freshmen in the autumn of '28. She makes high grades in her school work and takes an active part in many outside activities; but perhaps she is known best for her dramatic ability and her beautiful voice. Eleanor dear, in all of your future life, you carry with you the love of the 1930 Senior Class.



JAMES T. BARDEN, JR.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

"Real worth requires no interpreter; it's everyday deeds form it's blazonary."

Delphian Literary Society, Censor, Critic; President of Junior Class; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play; Varsity Football '27-'28-'29, Captain '29; Baseball Squad '27; Elected Best All-round Boy and Most Popular Boy in Senior Class '30; Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; U. S. A. Club; President of Epworth League; Glee Club.

One doesn't find real men like Jack everyday, nor everywhere. They just aren't made like him. On the gridiron he is a hero; in the class room he is a scholar; but above all he is a gentleman. He is a leader in everything both social and religious. Jack was unanimously voted the most popular boy in the Senior Class; he breaks the hearts of half of our fair co-eds on the campus, and is a buddy to the other half. He has won for himself many laurels and has made an enviable record during his stay at Weaver. For you, Jack, we predict a bright and prosperous future, a success in every sense of the word.

RESSIE KATE MEECE

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA

"A perfect woman nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command;
And yet a spirit still and bright,
With something of an angelic light."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Superintendent of Sunday School; Debate Council; Brevard and B. I. Club; Tennis Club; Weaver Derby Club; Assistant to Dean '29, '30; Life Service Band.

In Ressie Kate we find the embodiment of all that is good, pure, and true. Her character reveals itself before you in kind, friendly, thoughtful deeds. She is a favorite of the student body and the faculty. We all love you, dear ole school-mate, and you will never be forgotten by the class of '30. We wish for you the reality of your fondest hopes and desires.

J. STANLEY RASH

LENOIR, NORTH CAROLINA

"Of an amiable disposition, skillful in the art of acquiring lasting friends."

Delphian Literary Society, President '28; Student Council, President '28; Junior Class Reporter to Pep '28; Football Squad '28, Assistant Manager '28, Manager '29; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; U. S. A. Club; Voted Most Handsome Boy in Senior Class '30.

If you have never met a man with a "real personality", the Senior Class takes great pride in presenting to you Stanley Rash. We wish all of Doug Fairbanks' fans could have seen Stanley as 'Jim' in Gipsy Jim; he looked like what we all wanted and expected Doug. Jr. to look like. Even if the world is disappointed in Doug Jr. you are here, Stanley. We hope you will step up and claim the fame that is awaiting you. Best o' luck to the most handsome member of our unusually handsome Senior Class.

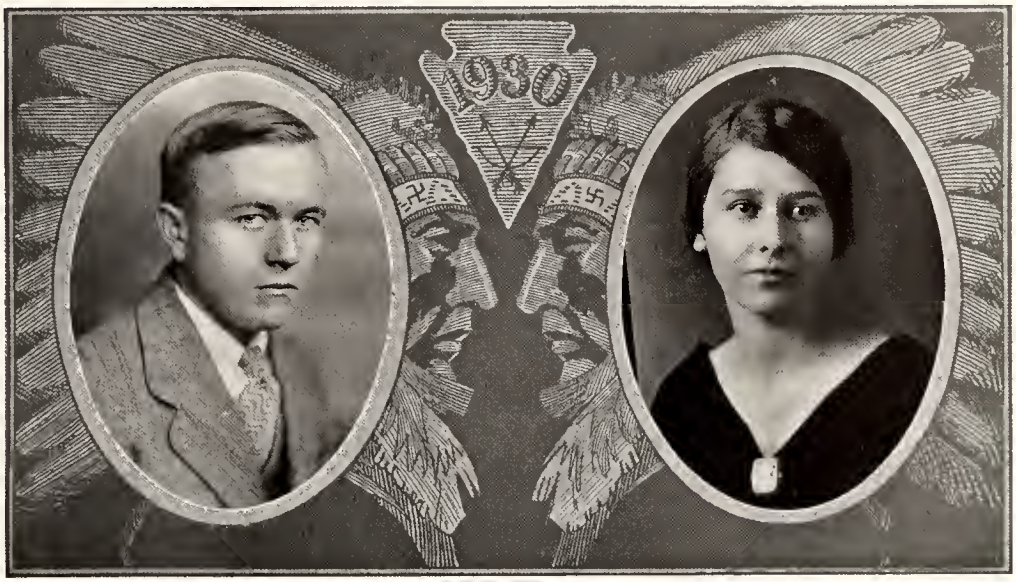
LOLEETA SHELTON SMITH

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"She is good to look upon, and better yet to know."

Euterpean Literary Society, Vice-President, Chaplain; College Council; Debate Council, Secretary '29-'30; Sponsor of Clios '29; Sponsor of Senior Class '30; Glee Club; Buncombe County Club; Dramatic Club; Clio-Euterpean Play; Weaver "Derby" Club; Elected Prettiest girl in Senior Class.

The girl with the golden hair and blue dreamy eyes, Loleeta is a representative co-ed with a sparkling personality and a heart for any fate. She is bright, friendly, witty, intelligent, attractive, and charming—what we are trying to say is that she is an all-round good sport and that we all love her. 'Tis great to know you, "Ma Chere"!



HARRY S. CRUMLEY

CANTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"Humor is one of the elements of genius."

Delphian Literary Society, Critic '29, Secretary '30; Day Debate Committee '29; Assistant Baseball Manager '29; Tennis Club; Haywood County Club; Basketball Squad '29-'30.

The more we know of Harry, the better we like him. By his sense of humor, and his friendliness he has often made us forget our worries and troubles. Harry is a true pal, and we have always been able to depend upon him to do his part. He is a student of exceptional mental ability; and if we didn't like him so well, we should envy him his good grades. Remember, Harry, your old Alma Mater is backing you up.

LOCKE MARTIN

WADESBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

"And still we gazed, and still the wonder grew;
That one small head could carry all she knew."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Debate Council; Commencement Marshall, Chief; "Pep" Reporter; U. S. A. Club; Commercial Department Assistant '29; Mountaineer Staff, Typist; Secretary and Treasurer of Senior Class.

Studious, dependable, lovable, sincere—these are the adjectives that describe Locke. We shall remember her because of her high principles and winning personality. As a student, she is rewarded by good grades, which come as a result of thoughtful preparation. Her many friends at Weaver wish for her happiness and success in her chosen profession, whatever it may be.

CLIFFORD H. PEACE

TRINITY, NORTH CAROLINA

"A little body doth often harbor a great soul."

Cliosophic Literary Society, President '28-'29, Critic '29, Censor '29, Chairman of Ways and Means Committee '29, Treasure '29, Chaplain '30; Ministerial Band, President '29, Secretary '28; Student Council '29; Glee Club; Weaver Male Quartette; Epworth League Cabinet; Y. M. C. A., President '29-'30; Superintendent of Sunday School '29; Winner of Clio Improvement in Debate Medal '29; Debate Council '29-'30; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Manager of Baseball Team '30.

During Clifford's two years at Weaver, he has taken an active part in all phases of school life. His chapel talks have been a source of inspiration to the entire student body. His most excellent disposition and earnest industry have made him loved by all. He has chosen for his life's work the calling of Christ. Nowhere can a finer Christian character be found, and to Clifford goes our very best wishes.

MARY VIRGINIA COX

STANLEY, NORTH CAROLINA

"It is better to wear out than to rust out."

Euterpean Literary Society; Epworth League Cabinet '29; Varsity Basketball '29-'30, Captain '30; Assistant to Dietitian '29; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Life Service Band; Athletic Council '30. Voted Most Athletic Girl in Senior Class; Tennis Club.

If it's anything concerning athletics, you will always find "Ginger" at the top. She is the most athletic girl in our class and is a member of the Athletic Council. She has a sunny disposition and is a hard worker. Her willingness to work and the good she has done in the Epworth League have been an inspiration to all of us. We all love you "Ginger"; and wish for you the success you merit.

FRANK S. STARNES

WAXHAW, NORTH CAROLINA

"And when a lady's in the race all other things give place."

Delphian Literary Society President '29; Winner of "Improvement in Debate" Medal '29; U. S. A. Club; President Tennis Club; Delphian Trio; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; College Council; Debate Council '29; Baseball '30.

Congratulations to you from the Senior Class, Frank! For one whole year at Weaver you didn't let Cupid even pierce your heart. But this year things are different—and how! Frank is the first to reach Crutchfield Hall and the last to leave. He is kind, peaceable, and congenial and has developed an interest in all campus activities. We know that there is a great future in store for you. Best wishes from the Senior Class!

LILLIE MAE RUSSELL

ALBEMARLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"I have lived and loved."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Vice-President; U. S. A. Club; Life Service Band; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Dramatic Club; Glee Club.

We all love Lillie Mae because she is a good, sweet, quiet, studious, and amiable girl. She has done many things to make our school life more enjoyable. We shall remember her and the quiet, modest way in which she goes about her work. When she is teaching next year, we are sure that she will win the love and admiration of her pupils; but judging from the many letters she is receiving, she may not teach very long..... Anyway, we wish her joy, happiness, and success in both her love and her career.

JAMES EDWARD STABLER

WELCOME, NORTH CAROLINA

"Women's looks have been my books, and folly is all they've taught me."

Delphian Literary Society, President '29, Winner Day Debate '28; Football Squad '26-'27-'28-'29; Baseball Squad '27-'28-'29; College Council '28; Athletic Council '29; Voted Campus Sheik; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Dramatic Club; U. S. Marines.

To Jimmie we have given all the "sheiky honors"; only one glance at his likeness reveals the why's and the wherefore's. Jimmie has been at Weaver so long that he has almost become a Weaver tradition. He has always been on the entertaining committee and deserves a "one plus" on his college attitude for the chivalrous manner in which he has treated the visiting girls on the campus. He does his work well, but he is not in the habit of taking things too seriously. Remember, Jimmie, you have our very best wishes.

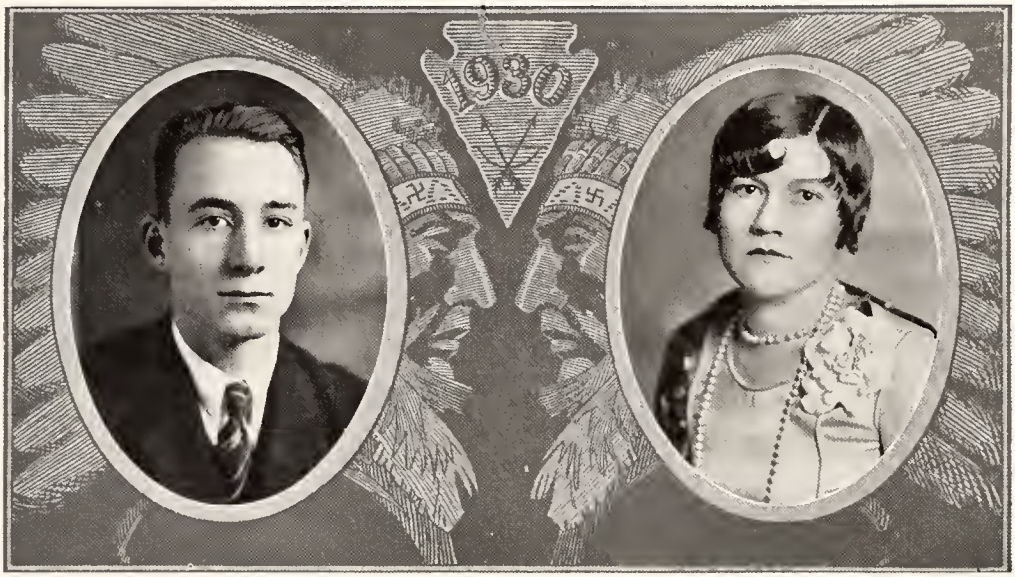
VELMA PARKER

NORWOOD, NORTH CAROLINA

"She's lovely, sweet, and all the rest that might be said about her;
But of all I say, this is the best—We couldn't do without her."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Secretary; U. S. A. Club; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Home Economics Club; Life Service Band; College Council; Dramatic Club; Glee Club; Elected Neatest Girl in the Senior Class.

In Velma we find a girl whom we all love and respect. Her personality has made her a host of friends. She is one of those persons who know just when to be serious and when to laugh. We hope that the bells of joy and happiness will ring for you as faithfully as you have rung the bells at Ole Weaver.



WILLIAM S. PRUETT

PISGAH FOREST, NORTH CAROLINA

"Good nature is worth more than knowledge, more than money, more than honor to the persons who possess it."

Closophic Literary Society, President '29, Vice-President '29, Secretary '29, Treasurer '30; Sport Editor of the "Pep" '28; Correspondent of the Asheville Times; Junior Debate '29; Football Squad '28-'29; Varsity Baseball '29-'30; B. I. & Transylvania County Club; Commercial Club, President; College Council, Secretary; Tennis Club; Dramatic Club; Clio-Euterpean Play '29; Business Manager Clio-Euterpean Play; U. S. A. Club.

If you are looking for a dependable or trustworthy man, we do not fail to recommend "Bill." His two years at Weaver have been clean and manly, and he has always stood for the things that are right. We find him a wonderful debater; and if you don't believe he can act, you just ought to have seen him in "Honor Bright." Pruett, whether he be in the halls of Congress, on the stage, or in some other business, we are sure will be a success. And, "Bill," old boy, we are betting on you.

WINIFRED MASKE

POLKTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"Who'll take the place of Winnie?"

Mnemosynean Literary Society; "Cheer Leader"; Tennis Club; Life Service Club; Honorary Member of B. I. & Transylvania County Club; U. S. A. Club, Secretary; Glee Club; Basketball '30.

Our Cheer Leader! And How? Winnie, what would our cheering be without you? The many "little offices" you have been given show just how much we think of you. Yet your fame does not stop here; Weaver will lose a great deal of its pep when Winnie tells the dear old place good-bye. You have endeared yourself to us; we shall miss you heaps; but remember we are for you, "Winnie," and know that you will win.

WILLIAM NEWSOME

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

"Girls fall for him—and he lets them lie."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Critic '29, Censor '29, Secretary '30; President of the Senior Class; Varsity Football '28-'29; Sport Editor of the "Pep" '29; Mountaineer Staff, Advertising Manager; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; U. S. A. Club.

The Class President, unassuming, nonchalant, care-free, and popular! He is practical and yet amusing; he is a good athlete as well as a good student. "Bill's" greatest weakness is falling in love; but this doesn't make him less admirable to any of us. He holds an important place in our social life and college activities. Our best wishes attend him in whatever profession he chooses.

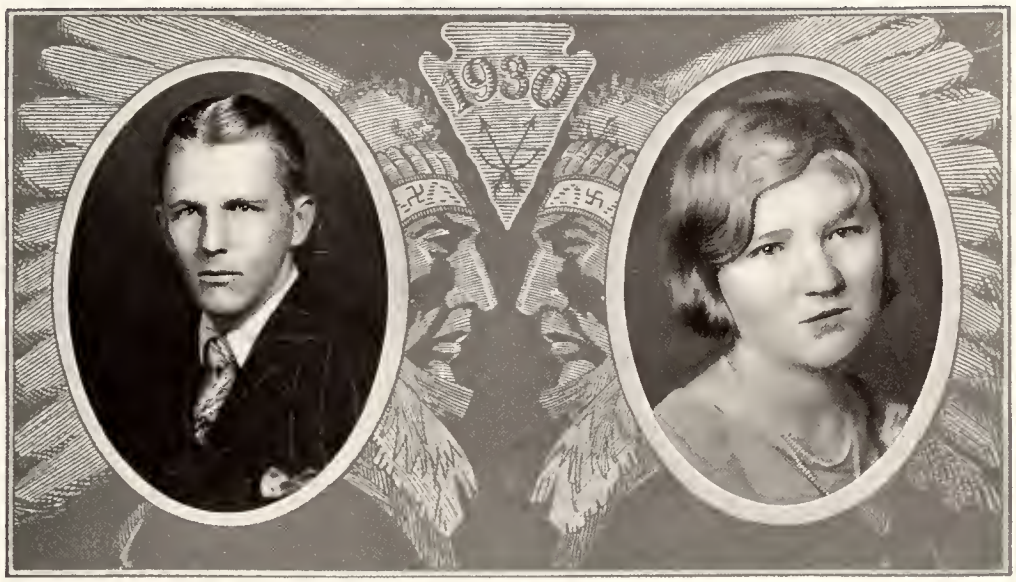
ANNIE ELIZABETH GRAY

RUTHERFORDTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"I cannot check my girlish blush; my color comes and goes."

Euterpean Literary Society, Vice-President '28-'29, Chaplain '29, President '29; Epworth League Cabinet, Secretary; Life Service Band; Haywood-Rutherford-Polk-Henderson County Club; Secretary and Treasurer '30; Elected Sweetest Girl in Senior Class; Winner in Good English Contest '30; Mountaineer Staff, Literary Editor.

Annie, we shall always treasure your acquaintance. We consider ourselves lucky in having so fine a girl as you in our class. We know that there is a great future in store for you, because amiability plays no small part in success. After voting you the sweetest girl in our class, Annie, we also gladly admit that you are one of the most intellectual. A sweet girl, an intellectual girl .... What an unusual combination! Here's joy and happiness to you from the entire class.



OTTIS WALKER

SOPHIA, NORTH CAROLINA

"True happiness consists not in multitudes of friends,
But in the worth and choice."

Cliosophic Literary Society; Chairman of Program Committee; Debating Club; Student Council, '29; Football Squad; Baseball Squad; Tennis Club; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club.

Walker's quiet fun and unassuming manner have gained for him a multitude of friends at Weaver. He is one of those few who are never too busy to help a friend. Not only is Walker very popular but he is a well-dressed boy. Should you want to know the latest concerning the styles and fashions, ask Walker. We don't know his plans, but we are safe in assuming that wherever he goes he will make a host of friends.

IDA LEE POTEAT

FLETCHER, NORTH CAROLINA

"Here's to the girl with a heart and a smile
That makes the bubble of life worth while."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Secretary '29, Vice-President '30, Member of the Program Committee; Life Service Band; Dramatic Club; Glee Club; Elected Peppiest Girl in the Senior Class; Assistant Sunday School Superintendent; Basketball '29-'30, Manager '30; Tennis Club; Home Economics Club; Haywood-Rutherford-Polk-Henderson County Club; Reading Contest.

Ida Lee possesses just those characteristics which we all strive for but few attain; She is fun-loving, jolly, sincere, and studious. Weaver never had a more loyal student than Ida Lee. We are expecting great things from her, and we feel confident that she won't disappoint us.

WILLIAM C. STUBBS

BLOUNTS CREEK, NORTH CAROLINA

"Write me as one who loves his fellow men."

Chosophic Literary Society, Critic '29, Treasurer '29; Editor of the Weaver "Pep" '29; Mountaineer Staff; Sport Editor; Brevard Institute and Transylvania County Club; Honorary Member of Haywood-Rutherford-Polk-Henderson County Club; Winner of Clio Day Debate.

The way to judge one's popularity is by one's friends. "Stubby" has a host of friends at Weaver, and everyone has found him to be a true-blue friend. If honesty, persistency geniality, and pleasantness are characteristic of greatness, then "Stubby" belongs to the truly great. He has taken an active part in society work and is a successful debater. Last year he won the Day Debate Medal awarded by the Clios. He has been a loyal student, and, Weaver will be the loser when Commencement Day rolls around.

VIRGINIA PROFFITT

BALD CREEK, NORTH CAROLINA

"So unaffected, so composed a mind;
So firm, yet soft; so strong, yet so refined."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Chaplain; Senior Class Prophet; Romance Language Club '29; Glee Club; Weaver "Derby" Club; Secretary of Sunday School; Buncombe County Club.

Level-headed, dignified, smiling—that's the Virginia we see; capable, efficient, trustworthy—that's the Virginia we admire; jolly, friendly, a good sport—that's the Virginia we love. These qualities have won for her the respect and esteem of everyone at Weaver. What more needs to be said?

ARCHIE F. CARR

MT. VERNON, GEORGIA

"True wit is nature advantage dress'd,
What oft was thought, but ne'er so well expressed."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Representative to the College Council; Georgia-Tennessee-South Carolina Club; Class Poet; Elected the wittest Boy in the Senior Class; Clio-Euterpean Play.

Archie, hailing from Davidson College, has made a fine addition to our class. A successful actor, a good student, a congenial friend, mischievous, witty,—that's Archie. Archie is the shark of sharks in languages. He speaks Spanish like a native. Archie is one of the most original members of our class. He is a gentleman, a brilliant student, and a good sport. Whether it be in diplomatic service, on the stage, or in whatever he undertakes, we are sure he will make a record that is outstanding.

GENEVA CARTER

WEAVERVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"She does her task from day to day
And meets whatever comes her way."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Life Service Band; Recitation Contest; Buncombe County Club; Weaver High School.

Geneva is one of our town girls. We wish she stayed in Crutchfield Hall because we love her and enjoy her company. Her scholastic record is one to be proud of. She is a very loyal member of her class and society. It was she who won our "Good English" contest prize last year. Her genuine qualities of womanliness assure her success in life,

JOHN T. KENNEDY

WEDINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"Happy am I, from care I'm free!
Why aren't they all content like me."

Delphian Literary Society, Chaplain, Janitor; Student Council '30; Baseball '30; Tennis Club; U. S. A. Club; Elected "It" in the Senior Class.

John, we all envy you of your popularity; but we have to admit that such popularity must be deserved. Not everyone has John's humor, his pleasant bearing, his frank courtesy, and his friendliness. Why read "At the Theatre" when John is around? He knows the shows of last week, this week, and all the attractions of the weeks to come. We do not forget his ideals either. We expect those ideals to make him an eminent success in his chosen vocation. No one in the class will ever forget you, John, and you will always have our very best wishes.

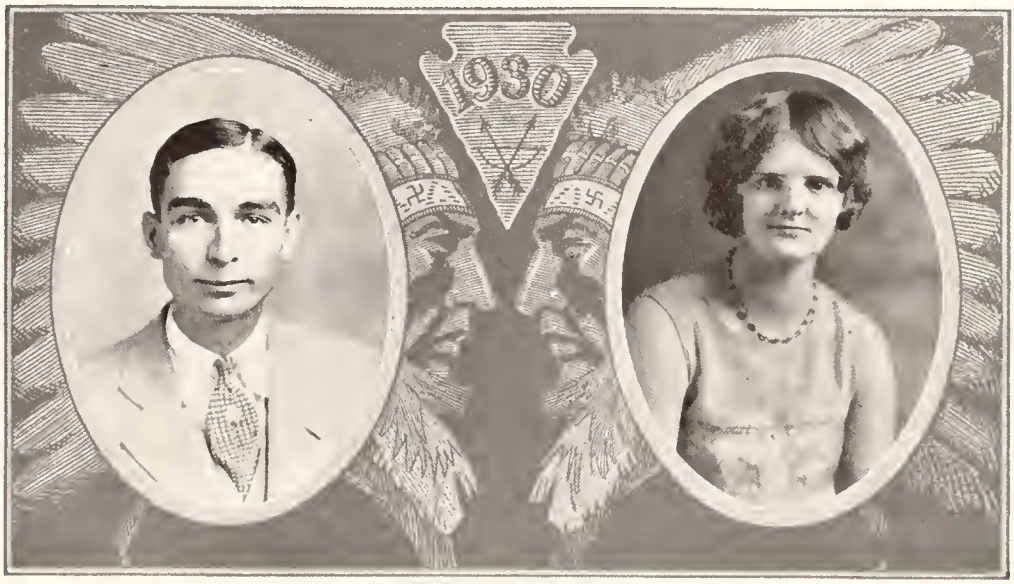
ELOUISE BENNETT

BALD CREEK, NORTH CAROLINA

"Faithful, loyal, and kind, a better pal can no one find."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Vice-President '29, President '30; Weaver "Derby" Club; Buncombe County Club; Glee Club; Romance Language Club.

Elouise is a girl of noble character and high ideals. It would be hard to find a more sincere girl or a truer friend. Because she is able to make her life count, we are expecting her to rise above the masses. Best wishes to you, dear ole school mate.



CLARENCE H. LEWIS

DUNN, NORTH CAROLINA

"His enthusiasm kindles as he advances;
And when he arrives at his peroration
It is in full blaze."

Delphian Literary Society, Critic '29, President '30; Ministerial Band.

When Lewis walked on the campus last year, it was a gain for us and our school. We all like him. He is our walking encyclopedia. Sometimes even if the dumbest of us didn't know the meaning of those high words, we knew they were all right; because everything Lewis does is all right. He is full of enthusiasm and ambition, and you may look for him at the top, because he will be satisfied with nothing else.

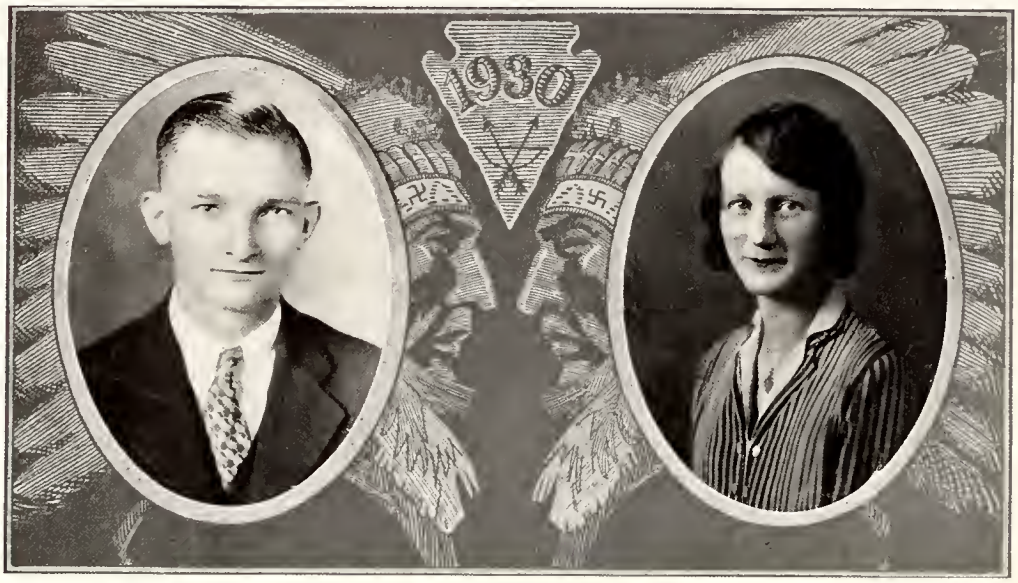
SARA SMITH

BURNSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a true-blue girl in every way."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Chaplain '29; Glee Club; Home Economics Club; Life Service Band; Vice-President of the Sunday School '29-'30; Buncombe County Club.

Sara is quiet and modest, but full of fun, whether at work or play. She has an attractive personality and makes friends everywhere she goes. Sara is a girl of noble character and high ideals. Her loyalty, honesty, and truthfulness will bring her success in the future. When one wants help, Sara is always only too willing to be of service. Sara, ole dear, we shall miss your sweet and cheerful smile, but we know it will bring joy and happiness to others as it has to us.



JAMES HOWELL

ANSONVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Serve all, but love only one."

Delphian Literary Society; Football Squad '29; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; U. S. A. Club.

Good ole Jake, always willing to help when help is needed, and the possessor of a free-for-all smile. Jake, you have certainly been a loyal supporter of the class in every one of its undertakings, and especially have you given your support on the athletic field. Your sunny disposition will make friends for you wherever you may go. To you go the best wishes from the Senior Class for a bright and happy future.

ANNA MAE DAVIS

CANTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"I am a part of all I have met."

Euterpean Literary Society; Alternate Debater; Commercial Club; Haywood-Rutherford-Polk-Henderson County Club.

Anna Mae, you are one of our two-in-one students—a popular Senior and a shark in Commercial Work. Do we not have a right to be proud of you? Anna Mae is sweet, active, attractive, capable, kind; and no matter what comes up, she can always be counted on to do the sportsmanlike thing. Anna Mae was, is, and always will be popular and loved. We look to you for the laurels.

O. H. GOODMAN

CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA

"True worth is in being, not seeming."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Treasurer '29, Vice-President '29, President '29; Debate Council '29; Student Council '29-'30; Secretary and Treasurer of the Junior Class '29; Baseball '29-'30, Captain '30; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; B. I. and Transylvania County Club; Dramatic Club; Clio-Euterpean Play.

Opal is one of our B. I. students that we are justly proud of. He was voted the most intellectual boy in the Senior Class. He is a baseball player of some eminence; and we are all glad that he was elected to captain our baseball team, because we are confident of his ability as a leader. With his intellectual ability and ambition we are sure he is bound to make good in life. And, Opal, always remember that your classmates of Weaver wish you a world of success in your chosen career.

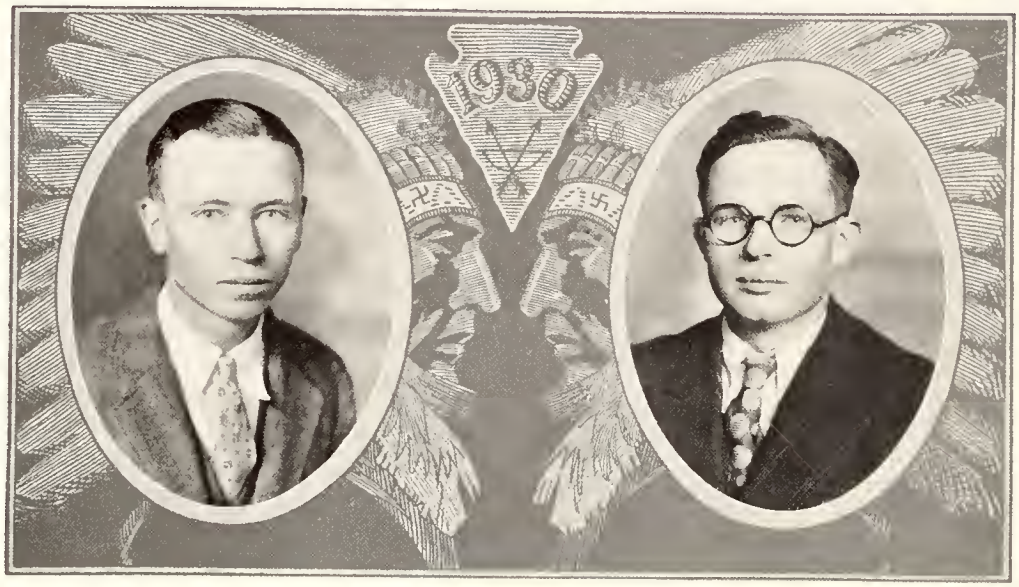
VICTORIA MORRISON

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

"To know her is to love her."

Euterpean Literary Society, Chaplain, President '29; Chairman of the Program Committee; Assistant to Dean Pylant; Treasurer of the Epworth League; Sponsor of Euterpeans; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; U. S. A. Club; Elected Best All-round Girl in Class.

If you want to do the impossible, try to find someone at Weaver who doesn't love, admire, and praise Victoria. You can't find one like her, because there is no such person. She is one of the sweetest and most noble girls we have every known. Surely she cannot be surpassed, and just as surely shall she keep place in our hearts forever.



T. C. JOHNSON

MORVEN, NORTH CAROLINA

"Simplicity and truth dwelleth in his heart."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Secretary '29; Baseball '30; Tennis Club; U. S. A. Club.

Everybody likes T. C. One among the many things we like about him is his modesty; we never hear him boasting about the great things he has accomplished or is to accomplish. He is always patient and sympathetic; always in a good humor; and always willing to do something that will help others. Whether it be in work or in play, he is there wholeheartedly; and therefore, we expect to hear great things from him.

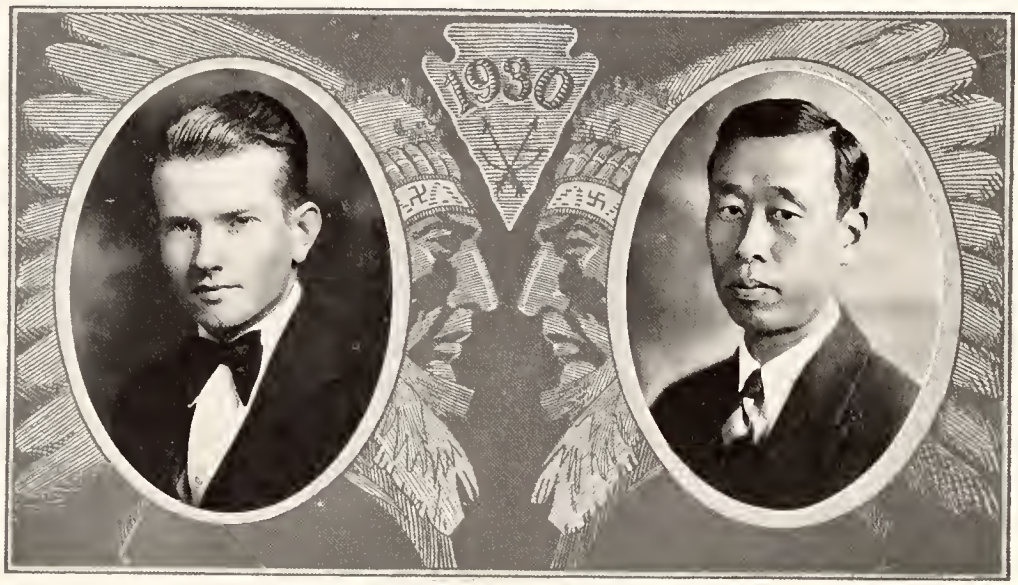
A. J. CARR

WALLACE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Amiability shines by its own light."

Delphian Literary Society, Chaplain '29, Secretary and Treasurer '29, Vice-President '29, President '30; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; U. S. A. Club.

When you see this bright and shining face with the broad and confident grin which habitually accompanies it, you know that "Red" is around. His willingness to help others and his pleasing personality have made him many friends. He has proved himself a man able to lead, and willing to be led, a friend. He is trustworthy, dependable, faithful, and sincere; he has ability and is capable of doing almost anything except mail a letter or a card without a stamp. Eastern Carolina sent one of her best when she sent "Red."



CARL FARROW

ENGELHARD, NORTH CAROLINA

"True merit, like a river, the deeper it is the less noise it makes."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Censor '29, Chaplain '30; Ministerial Band, Secretary '29, Vice-President '30; Lake Landing High School.

Although Carl was voted the woman-hater of our class, we don't believe it. In class we always find him perched by some co-ed. The Pharoahs of ancient Egypt could not have possessed more poise than our Carl does as he leaves the class room to ring the bell. He is not very talkative, but when he does talk, he says something worth while. Carl has not discussed his plans with us, but we know that whatever he undertakes he will be a success.

HONG KEUN PAK

SONGDO, KOREA

"To a wise man all the world's his soil. It is not Italy, nor France, nor Europe, that must bound me, if my fate calls me forth."

Cliosophic Literary Society; Songdo High School; Glee Club; International Club; Tennis Club; Tennis Champion of Weaver College '29.

Mr. Pak is one of our foreigners of whom we are very proud. We are glad to have him in our class. Who said math and chemistry were hard? Oh! they are only hard for some of us, but with Mr. Pak it is different. He has made a good record in all his school work, but in these two subjects he is especially good. Does Mr. Pak mind taking a joke? Oh, no! We never see him angry; he is always in a good humor. We have enjoyed hearing him sing his native songs. We shall never forget you, Pak; and when you return to your home, you will carry with you the best wishes of everyone at Weaver.

Class Prophecy

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA,
October 4, 1935.

Mr. John Stevens,
Editor in Chief, The 1935 Mountaineer,
Weaver College, Weaverville, N. C.
My Dear Mr. Stevens:

A few days ago I received a letter from you asking if I knew the whereabouts of the various members of the class of 1930, and what each was doing. It so happens that I have recently written each member of the class about our reunion this year, our first since leaving Weaver five years ago. I am giving below excerpts from these letters.

Yours most sincerely,
Virginia Proffitt,
Assistant Editor of Pacific Monthly.

.....and am now doing post graduate work at Columbia University, getting ready for a position as teacher of French at Duke.

Sincerely yours,
O. H. Goodman.

No, not married yet. I'm entirely too busy enjoying the frivolities of life to settle down.

Carl Farrow.

You have probably heard of my first two unfortunate marriages. I have a firm belief however, in the charm of number three .....

Lovingly,
Elouise Bennett

Gene Junior and Mary Helen are begging me to take them riding, so I will close.

With love,
Loleeta

We were admitted to the bar a year after studying law at Carolina.

As ever,
Ressie Kate and Carlyle

I do not claim to deserve the favor that has been heaped upon me for my work in the settlement districts. I have only done the best I could.

Very sincerely,
Clifford Peace

..... the first lady of the land sends her love to you.

Always,
Locke Martin.

Perhaps you will be surprised when you learn that I am studying surgery.....

Your sincere friend,
A. J. Carr.

..... and I have finally won over all my family's objections. I am leaving next week for Hollywood.

With love,
Eleanor Trowbridge.

..... and I have been teaching ever since I graduated. I love it so that I feel that I shall never give it up for—no, not even for that. I do not choose to marry.

As ever,
Sara Smith

I have written several stories. None of them has been published yet, but I try to keep in mind the old adage, "If at first you don't succeed."

Devotedly,
Annie Gray

As instructor of Physical Education at the University of Florida, my duties are interesting and pleasant.

Erwin Starnes

This is the third year of our wonderful life together here in Australia.

As ever,
Lillie Mae and T. C. Johnson

My career in the business world has been unusually happy and successful.....

Sincerely yours,
Jack Barden

..... and after completing training at Johns Hopkins, I came to this isolated spot in Africa where I am head nurse in a Christian Hospital.

Always,

NELLIE MAE ROBERTS

My work here in the orphanage is fascinating .....

Your friend,

GENEVA CARTER

A rich uncle left me a few million and a ranch in Texas.

With sincere regards,

OTTIS WALKER

..... and after keeping afloat on the wing of the plane for two days we were picked up by a French steamer. Our next flight will be from New York to Siberia.

As ever,

"WINNIE" AND "BILL" PRCETT

..... As you know, after leaving Weaver, I traveled with a light opera company for several years, until finally I married a member of the cast .....

Lovingly,

EVELYN BRADSHAW

I taught for two years in Hawaii, and there I met the Naval officer who is now my husband.

Always,

IDA LEE POTEAT

Since swimming the Gulf of Mexico, I have been in training in New Orleans preparatory for my next great feat.

As ever,

GEORGE FLINTON

..... after completing my work in the United States, I returned to Korea, and am now teaching English.

PAK

Don't be surprised when I tell you that I am leaving next month for Alaska. It has long been my desire to teach in the native schools there.

Love,

MARY VIRGINIA COX

..... and my invention of a dye for changing the color of the eyes brought me much wealth. I am now living on Long Island.

Sincerely,

"BILL" NEWSOME

Perhaps it is hard for you to believe, but I am completely wrapped up in my work in the Secret Service.

HARRY CRUMLEY

The English are indeed cordial to the Ambassadors and their wives, and I have grown to love London very much.

With love,

VICTORIA MORRISON

..... and I am now a manicurist on Fifth Avenue.

VELMA PARKER

..... and as you know, I am now assistant editor of the New York Times.

Your sincere friend,

WILLIAM STUBBS

Luz and I came to Cuba in 1932, and now I am owner of a large pineapple plantation.

EARL MORGAN

Don't be surprised when I tell you that I am now a bishop in the Southern Methodist Conference.

E. H. MEASAMER

I am raising cattle and sheep here in Montana .....

Sincerely,

JAMES HOWELL

I am enjoying my political life here in Washington.

FRANK STARNES

I have just signed a five year contract with Paramount Studios.

Your sincere friend,

JOHN KENNEDY

. . .. and now I am called the second Babe Ruth. .....

Your old school mate,

"GENE"

Yes, I married Claude! You knew I would.

"JO"

Dates We Can't Forget

SEPTEMBER

11—Most of the inmates arrive and are assigned their cells.
12—Registration Day. Freshmen learn the traditions of this noble institution.
13—Classes begin.
14—The Epworth League gives the first social. Many matches are struck.
15—Everybody goes to church and receives a welcome.
16—Jack wins blue lamp.
18—Miss Smith starts talking about Georgia.
21—Clio-Euterpean social. Mrs. Pylant wins milk-drinking contest; Prof. Trowbridge runs a close second.
28—Delphian-Mnemosynean social. "Red" wins over Carlyle in pie-eating contest.

OCTOBER

4—First pep meeting. Rah! Rah! Rah!
5—Football game. Weaver 46, Fruitland 0.
6-11—Junior girls are not able to sleep. Meetings very popular among old girls.
11—Tornado is tied by Biltmore 6 to 6.
15-18—New girls go without cosmetics, use the side door, and seem to have lost all interest in the boys; they don't even speak to them.
18—Weaver defeats Wingate 18 to 0.
22—Liner calls meeting of all the old boys.
26—Weaver 6, Campbell 6.
31—Hallowe'en. Skinner Hall a rendezvous for black cats, goblins and witches.

NOVEMBER

2—Weaver defeats M. P. C. I., 13 to 0.
5—The Clio-Euterpean play, "Her Husband's Wife," was enjoyed by a large audience.
12—Night light off. Noise is heard on fire escape! Girls tremble! Mrs. Pylant reaches for pistol! Three shots! "Girls, go to your rooms." It was only Miss Hayes.
20—The Freshman boys are surely expecting to take a long trip in the mud, because they are seen carrying their traveling bags, and have their pants rolled to their knees.
28—Thanksgiving Day. Dining hall beautifully decorated—a real Thanksgiving dinner.

DECEMBER

2—Really now, do Mrs. Pylant and Miss Smith know there are other states beside the one between South Carolina and Florida?
6—The girls give Miss Smith a little surprise party in honor of her birthday.
7—The Delphians and Mnemosyneans very successfully present their play, "Gipsy Jim."
14—Everyone has the Christmas Spirit.
16—Euterpeans entertain Mnemosyneans.
17—Everyone is getting ready to go home. Santa Claus visits the dining room. Marshmallow toasting.
18—Buses, cars, trains, "bumming", just any way to get home because the Christmas holidays start today. Goodbye till 1930.

JANUARY

2—School reopens.
3—Efforts to forget the recent joys and pleasures and get down to real work.
15-22—Review week. Much cramming is done.
22-28—Examinations. Of all the sad words of mouth or pen, the saddest are these: "I flunked again."
29—The beginning of the new semester.

FEBRUARY

1—Luz is without a date; Earl spends week-end at home.
2-7—Sunday School Training Course.
11—Faculty at chapel on time.
14—Mnemosyneans entertain Euterpeans.
15—Willis and Velma have a date.
21-24—Etiquette books become popular. The girls are getting marcels and finger waves. Everyone seems to be expecting something extraordinary.
24—Holiday. Junior-Senior Banquet.
26—"Cuco" gets permission to speak to Tootsie.

MARCH

1—Summey says the call of old Weaver is too strong for him; he has to come back nearly every week end.
3—Carl Farrow has been seen running.
6—Starnes urges all Annual bills to be paid.
17—Mr. Duncan gives the boys some little white slips of paper to fill out.

The rest of the dates are just as important but it is time for the "Mountaineer" to go to the press; and besides the remainder of the year will be spent in love affairs, holidays, faculty meetings, ball games, and Commencement; and we couldn't record it all on the pages of an encyclopedia.

Flashes From The Gridiron

With eighteen consecutive victories and two state championships to their credit, the Golden Tornadoes opened the season. With only three letter men back: Captain Barden, Starnes, and Fortson, and with a tough schedule ahead, Coaches Talman and Baker concentrated their best efforts on the new material which arrived at the opening of school. Prominent among the squad of last year who came back were Newsome, Prnett, McCracken, and Stabler. Among the new men who presented themselves as candidates were Clark, Priddy, Lyda, Flintom, Willis, Estes, Hal and Doughty Osborne, Morgan, Clayton, and Cunningham. From the above men an almost new Tornado squad was formed.

On October 6, Fruitland Institute journeyed over to visit the Talmanites and blew in a 46 to 0 defeat. This was a gala event for the team and one of the easiest of all the victories. In this game some real football material was evident.

Biltmore Junior College met the Talmanites on Dunham Field on October 12. From the first, it could be seen that the Tornado was up against some opposition. Starnes and Fortson as tackles distinguished themselves in this game. Captain Barden at center was up to his regular form. After a steady gain of a few yards at the close of the second quarter, Lyda went over the line for the first score of the game. In the fourth quarter Lanning, of Biltmore, crashed over for a touchdown. The game ended in a tie.

On October 18, Weaver met Wingate at the Memorial Stadium in Asheville. The Gold Tornado ripped the Wingate line wide open from the start. The play of the Weaver line featured the game, Captain Barden, Morgan, Starnes, and Fortson showing up well. The game ended in an 18 to 0 victory for Weaver.

Campbell College met the Tornadoes on October 27, at the Memorial Stadium in Asheville. During this game, which was a hard one, some of the best players of Junior College football opposed each other. The game was a battle royal from the sound of the first whistle to the last. Campbell tied a 6 to 6 score with the Tornadoes.

On November 2, the M. P. C. I. Cadets went down to a 13 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Tornadoes. The Cadets showed plenty of fighting spirit, but were soon lost in the maze of line plays that the Tornado whirled around them.

On November 8, Weaver trounced her sister rival, Rutherford College, to a 12 to 0 score. The Tornadoes, showing their usual strength, displayed some unusual team work in this game. This game marked the fifth consecutive victory that Weaver has scored over her sister college.

On November 11, Weaver met the American Legion All Stars at the Asheville Memorial Stadium for their annual Armistice Day game. Being opposed by a heavier and more experienced team, the Tornadoes went down in a 38 to 7 defeat. The Tornadoes did some good team work in this struggle and the line showed up especially well. Billie Estes had the honor of making Weaver's lone touchdown.

On November 18, Weaver traveled over to Lees-McRae and breezed up a 13 to 0 score.

On November 23, Weaver met the East Tennessee Teachers at Johnson City for the final combat of the season. Both teams were at a disadvantage from the start. The field was a mass of mud and slush, caused from melting snow. From the beginning of the game it was impossible to complete any passes owing to a wet and muddy ball. Both teams depended almost entirely on line plays. The result of the game was a 7 to 0 score in favor of the Teachers. This game ended the careers of Captain Barden, Starnes, Newsome, and Flintom. The team under the direction of Coach Talman were loud in their praise for his loyalty and devotion. Each man gave him a square deal, and he, in return, did the same for the boys he worked so faithfully with.

Times Change . . . Ward's Stay

I bought from Ward's, now let me see,
I think the Spring of '93.
Maybe before that, I don't know,
Anyway 'twas years ago.

I started farmin' on the plains
And sent and bought a lot of things,
I bought a mower, rake and plow,
A bell and chain to tie the cow.

I bought a wagon painted red,
Though all the neighbors round me said
That you bet they'd never be
A-buyin' things they couldn't see.

But every time I sold a hog,
I bought things from the catalogue,
And told my neighbors where to go,
Cause Ward's saved me a lot of dough.

I'd always do my buyin' where
I got treated on the square,
And if the things they sent to me,
Ain't just what they ought to be

I don't ever have to fight,
To get Ward's to make it right.
Though we're old, me and the wife,
We've bought from Ward's for all our life.

And times have changed a lot I 'low
Since the day I bought the plow,
For we don't order any more,
But do our buyin' at Ward's Chain Store.
